

International Church of Strasbourg 2010-2011 Speaker's Series

Here I Walk: An Ecumenical Pilgrimage

Eglise du Bouclier
4, rue de Bouclier, Strasbourg
Tuesday, March 29 at 20h00

Last August, Strasbourg's Andrew and Sarah Wilson set out from the Augustinian Cloister in Erfurt, Germany, on a 70-day 1000-mile journey to Rome — on foot! Five hundred years ago, the future reformer Martin Luther — who famously said "Here I stand" during his trial — made the same trip. Come relive their journey (and Luther's) as they show and tell what's changed, what's stayed the same, and how Protestants and Catholics can get along after so many centuries of estrangement. The evening will conclude with a time of fellowship and light refreshments.

For more information, please contact --

Rev. Harold Nahabedian: anglican.chaplaincy.strasbourg@gmail.com or call 03 88 36 93 90

or Pastor Carol Simpson: pastorcms@cs.com or call 03 88 24 50 43

** See www.icstrasbourg.org for map and directions to Eglise du Bouclier ****